

Please do not support the Consumer Bankers Association in their attempt to exploit our telephone privacy act. Banks, credit card, and long distance companies already crowd our mailboxes and waste our natural resources trying to contact us. The "established businesses" have sold my number to other businesses and I still receive unwanted solicitations. Please don't make it worse by allowing more to sidestep the very effective privacy act.